- VII. Introductions of Board administrative and investigative staff, Chief of Police, Elected Officials or Representatives.
- VIII. Chair's Report. Chairperson Holley reported on the following information:

- (1) "First, I want to thank everyone for your understanding about the severe winter weather last Thursday, and the need to cancel the meeting. That means this is our first meeting in Black History Month. Black history is in all we do every day, but I urge everyone to take this special time to celebrate and honor those lives and legacies that shaped American society and continues to shape our world. I also ask that we pay homage to those visionaries, voters, leaders, and all who made it and still make it possible for the existence of one of the oldest independent civilian oversight agencies in the country, the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners. We exist because Detroiters fought against racial injustice. It is a privilege to serve and stand in the footsteps of those who came before us. We honor their goals today as we continue charting a path of "normalizing" the "Guardian over the Warrior" mindset across all law enforcement agencies. Our communities should not be viewed as battlefields in need of Warriors. Shifting from Warrior to Guardian mindset is vital to 21st Century policing. Sadly, however, we continue to see the need for urgent progress in national police reform as we mourn the killing of Amir Locke, a young 22-year old Black man who was shot and killed in the same city as George Floyd -- Minneapolis, Minnesota. Amir was NOT the subject of the search warrant. He was NOT involved in the crime that police were investigating. But like Breonna Taylor in Kentucky, his life is now gone during the execution of a no-knock search warrant. And that is the trouble. There's a problem when police departments seem so oblivious or so uncaring to the loss of Eric Garner, George Floyd, Breonna, and too many other names we know, and too many we don't know.

The Board continues to denounce these senseless killings by police and demand that those responsible for these unlawful killings and the unlawful, excessive use of force by police, be held responsible and brought to justice. We continue to call for federal standards and monitoring to ensure accountability in police agencies across the country.

- (2) ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF SPECIAL GUESTS AND HOST: We would like to acknowledge Sandra Turner-Handy, President of the Police-Community Relations Council for the 9th Precinct, who is attending on Zoom. We also like to thank and acknowledge Campus President Mark Sanford and Campus Dean Matthew Puwal for hosting the Board's Meeting this evening. If you are attending, please share a few remarks.
- (3) UPDATES FROM THIS WEEK'S ACTIVITIES: LAST WEEK'S BOARD MEETING CANCELLATION: As a reminder, the Board's Meeting was canceled last week due to the Winter Weather Advisory Forecast. We hope that everyone remained safe during those weather conditions. We also confirmed this meeting cancellation with the Law Department, and the Board was in compliance with the OMA.
- (4) GUN / CASE BACKLOG PROJECT PRESENTATION: As previously shared, next week, we will have a presentation on the "Gun/Case Backlog Project" in coordination with the Mayor's Office. This forum will provide more information regarding new initiatives and efforts to reduce the gun case backlog within the judicial system and other public safety initiatives. We look forward to sharing more information and we hope that you will attend.
- (5) DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION PRESENTATION: I recently met with the Department's new Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Executive Manager, Mary Engelman, to learn more about Chief White's goals and objectives for the DEI component in connection with the Department, the Board and OCI – our investigative division. Later in March, we will have a presentation by Ms. Engelman to discuss Chief White's plan and mission for bringing the DEI Component to the Detroit Police Department and the enhancement to DPD's culture, training, and policing. We look forward to this presentation.
- (6) BOPC COMMITTEE STRUCTURE: The Board received assignments for the new committees that I announced during the last meeting for Citizen Complaints, Policy, Budget, Personnel, and Towing Ad Hoc Committee. We also distributed additional committee guidelines as we prepare to reinstitute the committee structure. The documents are in your packet today. More information is forthcoming regarding committee meeting schedules, assignments, and criteria. Please remember that the Towing is an ad hoc committee because it relates to city procurement for an RFP. I look forward to your support and cooperation with this process.
- (7) OCI INVESTIGATOR INTERVIEWS: Board Members, you have received information regarding the OCI Interviews scheduled starting next week. These interviews will occur over the next few weeks. City HR will conduct the interviews, and we will ask brief follow-up questions. Please remember our vital role in this process to ensure that we are selecting serious, qualified candidates for the open Investigator positions. Once all of the interviews have occurred, we will make a decision and work with City HR to hire and onboard the selected candidates. I look forward to completing this process to fully staff our Investigative Division, who will continue to perform one of the most important oversight roles that we have, investigating alleged police misconduct complaints. I continue to thank staff for their hard work on this project.
- (8) BOPC FY 22 MID YEAR BUDGET REVIEW: I met with our Agency CFO James George and team to discuss the Board's current status of the FY 22 Mid-Year Budget Review. We are in compliance with our budget and are projected to remain within budget during this fiscal year. We are also able to fund the initiatives that I have previously reported on: staffing, resolving case backlog, and other training and internal Board needs. The budget reports were previously distributed in your packet for your review.
- (9) CHIEF'S REPORT: Chief, thank you for answering the Board's inquiries over the past couple of weeks and providing the requested documents such as the DPD Budget Detail Report and other correspondence on Weekly Crime Stats. We have received the written correspondence on those items. We also look forward to receiving the Department's report today on vital crime updates and critical incidents. And also updates regarding the Inquiry on Weekly Crime Stats, DPD's Administrative Closures, and ShotSpotter inquiries, which we are aware of the Department's preparation on the latter items for a response in the near future.

(10) DPD APPOINTMENTS TO THE RANKS OF COMMANDER AND CAPTAIN: The Board received several DPD appointment packets for appointments to the ranks of Commander and Captain. We look forward to hearing from Chief White regarding the candidates in preparation for a Board vote today.

(11) TODAY'S PRESENTATIONS: We look forward to the Presentations from the Human Resources Bureau and the Ninth Precinct.

(12) REMINDER TO UTILIZE FORUM IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE BOARD BYLAWS: Lastly, as a reminder, please utilize this forum in a professional and respectful manner. We will not use this forum as a political platform nor to harm, disparage or demean any person. Board Members or anyone who violates the Board's Bylaws or disrupts the meeting will be subject to action consistent with the Board Bylaws Article 11 Conduct of Meetings and the Open Meetings Act. Thank you for your professionalism and cooperation as we handle the important work of civilian oversight.

Commissioner Bernard read the resolution honoring Former Police Commissioner and Judge Avern Cohn (Posthumously).

RESOLUTION HONORING FORMER POLICE COMMISSIONER AND JUDGE AVERN COHN (POSTHUMOUSLY)

- WHEREAS Avern Cohn's extraordinary life of public service made an indelible impact on America across two centuries. A Detroit native, he grew up steadfast in his faith, served his country in the military, built a career as a lawyer, and became a legendary federal jurist; and
- WHEREAS Countless professional, civic, academic, and other organizations have and will continue to recognize and remark upon his lifelong achievements and enduring legacy, which include Judge Cohn's 40 years on the federal bench and archives of court decisions integral to the rule of law; and
- WHEREAS The Board of Police Commissioners pays tribute to Avern Cohn as a colleague, a believer in police accountability, and a fan of police radio. He often told how he asked his friend, Mayor Coleman A. Young, to appoint him to the Board so that he could listen to police runs. It was a great story that captured his humor, curiosity, and legal interest. However, the bigger story was that his 1975 appointment by Mayor Young placed Police Commissioner Cohn at the center of efforts to reform the Police Department. It is well known that reforms made Mayor Young a target of threats and other attacks, but Commissioner Cohn later shared how those reforms, which included increasing the number of Black and female officers, also made him a lot of enemies; and
- WHEREAS, Commissioner Cohn was never one to be intimidated and served on the Board for over four years. At the Mayor's urging, President Jimmy Carter nominated Commissioner Cohn as a federal judge in 1979; Judge Cohn's appointment made him the only Jewish judge on the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. When the Detroit community again sought police reform, fate put Judge Cohn in charge of ensuring the Police Department complied with federal consent decrees in 2014; and
- WHEREAS, Judge Cohn's service as a Police Commissioner and the role of the Board meant a lot to him. He supported the Board's 45th Anniversary in 2019, participated in a 2020 Wayne State panel on Detroit's history of civilian oversight, and, in October 2021, wrote a letter to the Free Press to correct errors about the Board. On Friday, February 4, 2022, he passed away at age 97. Therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Board of Police Commissioners, speaking on behalf of the residents of the great City of Detroit, salutes the life and legacy of former Police Commissioner and U.S. Judge Avern Cohn. As an early Board member and later as a federal judge, he distinctly ensured civilian oversight and police accountability during two historic eras of reform. The Board, which expressed its appreciation during his lifetime, awards this resolution posthumously as a permanent testament of gratitude for Avern Cohn's service, contributions, and lasting influence.

Commissioner Bernard moved adoption of a resolution, which was adopted as follows: “Resolved, That the Board of Police Commissioners, speaking on behalf of the residents of the great City of Detroit, salutes the life and legacy of former Police Commissioner and U.S. Judge Avern Cohn.
